Getting Started

Contents

Choosing where to go to college is a big decision – perhaps one of the most important of your life. Don't let "sticker price" stop you from considering colleges that may be right for you. The majority of students receive aid to help with college costs. Find out about financial aid. New York's private colleges and universities annually provide $1.7 billion in financial assistance from their own funds. In addition, students at these private campuses received more than $518 million in federal and state grants last year.

---

Financial Aid

How can I pay for my private college education? The answer is simple: if you need financial aid to help meet college costs, you are very likely to receive it. Many colleges also offer merit scholarships where financial need is not a factor. Always apply for aid and meet the deadlines. Review the aid process, step by step: pages 3 - 10.

Internet Resources

Many financial aid forms are available on-line. Turn to this section to learn where to go on the Web for answers to your financial aid and college search questions: page 12.

Campus Directory

From phone numbers to Web addresses, this map and directory puts New York's 100+ private colleges at your fingertips: pages 14 - 18.

Calendar

Now is the time to make an organized plan for your college search. Be sure you leave enough time to meet the deadlines for your admission and financial aid applications. Know your deadlines! Use the Calendar to plan: page 19.

How to Apply for Financial Aid

Step 1

Check with each college's financial aid office to determine which forms you need to file. Don't wait to be accepted to a college before filing an application for financial aid. File early to ensure that you're considered for all available funding. The most important forms are:

- FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) – Everyone applying for federal and most other financial aid must complete this form. File on-line at www.fafsa.ed.gov or by mail.
- NYS Express TAP Grant and Scholarship Application (ETA) – NYS residents attending a college in NYS use this free form with the FAFSA to apply for a NYS TAP grant and to request payment for NYS scholarship awards. If you list a NYS college on your FAFSA, you will receive a TAP ETA (by mail if you use the paper FAFSA, or you will be prompted to complete the TAP ETA on-line if you complete the on-line FAFSA).
- PROFILE – Some colleges may ask you to file this form to be considered for college-funded aid (the college's own grants and scholarships). There is a fee for filing this form.
- College-specific financial aid application – Some colleges may ask you to complete their own financial aid application to be considered for their own college-funded grants, scholarships and loans.

The FAFSA and the PROFILE forms are available in your guidance office or on the Internet (see page 12 for the Web addresses). Request the college's own financial aid application, if required. See pages 16 - 18 for college addresses and phone numbers. Follow each college's filing requirements and deadlines.

► In its 35-year history, HEOP (Higher Education Opportunity Program), in collaboration with private colleges and universities, has helped more than 27,000 eligible students graduate from college.

Step 2

Complete and mail the FAFSA as soon as possible after January 1 of your high school senior year. If your family hasn't yet completed 2004 income tax returns, estimate your family's income as accurately as possible. You'll have the opportunity to make corrections later in the process. If you're a NYS resident applying to colleges in the state, make sure you include a New York college on your FAFSA to begin application for a NYS TAP grant. Complete any other financial aid forms required by the colleges. Meet all deadlines. Keep a copy of all the forms you file.

By filing the FAFSA, you will be considered for:

- Grants and scholarships from private colleges and universities (some colleges may require an additional form)
- Federal Pell Grant
- Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)
- Federal Work-Study (FWS)
- Job programs from private colleges and universities
- Federal Perkins Loan
- Federal Stafford Loan or Federal Direct Loan
- Loan programs from private colleges and universities

Step 3

You'll receive your Federal Student Aid Report (SAR) approximately 30 days after submitting your FAFSA. The SAR will be sent in the mail if you file the paper FAFSA. If you file electronically and provide a valid e-mail, the SAR will be sent via e-mail. A paper SAR acknowledgement will be sent if a valid e-mail address is not provided. Review your SAR's information carefully. Follow the directions to correct any errors.

Step 4

In the spring (usually March or April), you'll receive financial aid "awards" or "packages" from the colleges that have offered you admission, each with a different combination of grants, scholarships, work-study and loans to help you meet college expenses.

Determine your "net cost" by subtracting from tuition and fees and room and board (if you're living on campus) all grants and scholarships plus the total amount of your loans.

Step 5

Review your financial aid award letters and compare your net costs. Follow the colleges' instructions to accept or reject the offers of admission and financial aid, usually by May 1. Then, review your financial aid with your chosen college. In particular:

- Follow up on your loans. Check with your college financial aid office for their student and parent loan application procedures. Know what you are borrowing and the repayment terms.
- NYS students attending college in the state: Follow up on your NYS Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) grant. Review, and if necessary, correct the data on your Express TAP Application (ETA) sent to you by NYSHEC (see pages 7 - 8).

Step 6

You must apply to renew your financial aid each year—on time—or risk losing it! Check your college's deadlines.

NOTE: 2004-05 process as of September 2004. Check with your high school counselor or college financial aid office for updates.

After You File Your Financial Aid Forms

You should always apply for aid. Even if you think you're not eligible or did not receive aid for a previous year, apply. Financial aid programs and family situations can change. Don't limit your choices now or in the future.

Facts about the Expected Family Contribution (EFC)

- For federal financial aid, your EFC is calculated in the same way at each college and will not change regardless of the price of the education you choose.
- The Parent Contribution for federal financial aid is calculated using a national formula that considers income, taxes paid, family size, savings, certain assets, certain debts, number of children in college and the age of parent(s).
- In most cases, the majority of the EFC comes from your income rather than assets; approximately 2% to 6% of a family's net worth is considered in the calculation.
- The Parent Contribution is roughly divided by the number of children attending college at least half time.
- Colleges may consider special financial hardships. Document extraordinary circumstances that affect your family's ability to contribute and submit a written request directly to the financial aid office.

Sample Expected Family Contribution (EFC) for College Costs (Calculated from the FAFSA per child)

Net worth (assets minus what is owed against these assets; home equity is not considered)	Up to $42,100		$60,000

Based on 2004-05 federal methodology; parent age 45; two parents working.
NOTE: EFC is lower if family size is larger, if number in college is greater (with 2 in college roughly half the EFC per child), if two parents are working, or if parent is older than 45 years of age.

 & \quad \text{Expected} \\
 & \quad \text{Contribution (EFC)}
 \end{aligned}$$

$$= $ \text{ Your Financial Need}$$

The information you supply on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is analyzed using a federal formula to assess your family's financial situation. The analysis will estimate how much you (Student Contribution) and your parent(s) (Parent Contribution) can reasonably contribute toward college costs for the year. This is known as the Expected Family Contribution (EFC).

The colleges you list on your FAFSA will receive your EFC analysis and will put together a "financial aid package" to help you meet your financial need. Financial need is the difference between a college's annual cost (tuition, fees, room, board, books and supplies, plus an allowance for personal expenses and transportation) and your expected family contribution. Your packages might include a combination of grants, scholarships, loans and work-study.

Colleges and Your Financial Aid Packages

When you apply for financial aid each college will put together a financial aid “package” or “award” to help you cover all or part of the cost of attendance (tuition, fees, room and board, books, transportation, personal expenses). What your financial aid packages look like will depend primarily on your calculated financial need. Your academic profile and other achievements may influence the size and composition of your package.

Most private colleges begin mailing financial aid awards in the spring. Every package will be different.

Evaluate your awards, choose the college you will attend, and accept its offer by the stated deadline. Notify all the colleges to which you applied of your final decision.

The sample financial aid packages below show different college costs and family income ranges. While these sample packages cover all of the student’s financial need, this does not always occur and will vary from college to college. If a financial aid package does not meet all of your need, your family may wish to consider alternatives such as those described on page 10.

► More than 1 in 4 (27%) HEOP graduates have pursued master’s, doctoral, or professional degrees.

Financial Aid Programs

Major sources of aid

Grants and scholarships are funds you do not have to repay. They are available from colleges, your state, the federal government, professional and service organizations, private foundations and many employers. Some grants are based on your financial need while others are awarded for academic merit, a specific career goal or group affiliation.

Work-study programs provide opportunities to earn money while you're in college by working part time on campus or in the community.

Educational loans for college costs may be made to you and/or your parents. This aid must be repaid, usually with interest. Loans are sponsored by the federal government, many private colleges and banks.

Alternatives for parents and students include interest-free tuition payment plans, low-interest loans, lines of credit, tuition tax deductions and credits.

Grants and scholarships

Grants and scholarships from NYS private colleges and universities = $1.7 billion

- Aid from a college may range up to $15,000 or more, per year, covering part or all of your tuition, fees and related costs. Eligibility is determined primarily by financial need as calculated from the financial aid forms you completed (need-based awards). Colleges may also take into account academic achievement, or talent in athletics, music or other fields (merit awards).
- To be considered for aid from many private colleges and universities, you'll be asked to file the FAFSA. An additional college financial aid application or the PROFILE may also be required for the college's own grants and scholarships. Check with each financial aid office to determine which forms you need to complete to be considered for need-based and merit-based aid. See pages 16 - 18 for college contact information. File the FAFSA as soon as possible after January 1. File all other financial aid forms by their specified deadlines.

Federal Pell Grants at NYS private colleges and universities = $240 million*

- Pell Grants are awarded to undergraduate students enrolled full or part time in a degree or approved certificate program. In 2004-05, Pell Grant awards range from $400 up to $4,050 per year.
- Eligibility for Pell is based on financial need determined by total income, net worth (excluding home and family farm equity), family size and the number of children in college. To apply, file the FAFSA.

NYS Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) grants at private colleges and universities = $278 million*

- TAP is a grant program for NYS residents attending a NYS college full time. In 2004-05, awards for first-time freshmen at private colleges and universities range from $500 to $5,000 per year for up to four years (five years for certain programs).
- Eligibility for TAP is based on NYS net taxable income. The chart on the facing page shows TAP awards at selected federal adjusted gross incomes minus NYS exemptions and standard deductions. However, if you itemize your deductions, your estimated NYS taxable income will be lower and your TAP award will be higher.

NOTE: Based on 2004-05 federal methodology; award amounts based on 2004-05 schedule.

► 1 in 3 full-time students at Independent Sector campuses who are residents of New York State comes from a family that earns less than $40,000.

Financial Aid Programs

- To apply for TAP, you must first file the FAFSA. If you list a NYS college or university on your FAFSA, New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (NYSHESC) will send you a pre-printed NYS Express TAP application (ETA) by mail or you will be prompted to complete an on-line TAP ETA if you file the FAFSA on-line. Review the data printed on your ETA and, after you decide which college in the state you will attend, sign and return your corrected ETA to NYSHESC. If you have questions about TAP, call 1-888-NYSHESC.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG)

- Funded jointly by the federal government and the colleges, FSEOG awards range up to $4,000 per year to full- or part-time enrolled undergraduate students with financial need who are Pell Grant recipients. Colleges select recipients and determine award amounts based on the FSEOG funds available at their college. To apply, file the FAFSA.

Loan limits for undergraduates: freshmen = $2,625; sophomores = $3,500; juniors and seniors, and fifth-year undergraduates = $5,500. Graduate students may borrow up to $8,500 per year in subsidized loans plus $10,000 per year in unsubsidized loans. To apply, all students must first file the FAFSA. Check with your college for its application procedures.
- Subsidized Stafford loan:* Eligibility is based on your financial need as calculated from information you provide on your FAFSA. There is no income cutoff as long as you demonstrate need. The federal government pays the interest on the loan while you're in college. You begin repayment six months after you're no longer enrolled at least half time.

Financial Aid Programs

Student loans

Federal Stafford loans - subsidized and unsubsidized

- Unsubsidized Stafford loan:
Eligibility is not based on financial need. You are responsible for paying the interest charges on the loan. Interest begins to accrue immediately. Repayment on the principal and interest begins six months after you're no longer enrolled at least half time. However, you may begin to pay on the interest and/or principal sooner.
- Federal Direct Loans:
Direct loans are available only at certain colleges as an alternative to Federal Stafford and Federal Parent Loans (FPLUS). These loans have the same borrowing amounts, qualifying requirements and interest rates as Federal Stafford loans and FPLUS (see below). If your college participates in the Direct Loan Program, it will notify you of application procedures.

Federal Perkins loans

- Undergraduates may borrow up to $4,000 per year; up to $20,000 total for undergraduate study. Graduate/professional students may borrow up to $6,000 per year. The maximum total for all years of study is $40,000. The federal government pays the fixed 5% interest until you begin repayment. Repayment begins nine months after you're no longer enrolled at least half time (up to 10 years to repay). Exceptional financial need and the availability of funds determine eligibility. To apply, file the FAFSA.

► Students can study anything at more than 100 private colleges and universities in New York State – in a wide range of settings.

Alternatives for parents and students

Federal Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (FPLUS)

- Parents and/or stepparents may borrow up to the cost of attendance, less other financial aid, each year for each undergraduate dependent child. Eligibility is not based on need. FPLUS loans can be used to meet your calculated family contribution. The interest rate is variable, currently capped at 9%. Parents may have up to 10 years to repay. Interest paid may be tax deductible. For information, complete the enclosed lender postcard or check with the college.

Alternative loans

- Many lenders offer alternative loans to help families pay for college. These loans offer competitive interest rates and varying, flexible repayment terms. For information, complete the enclosed lender postcard, or check with your college financial aid office.

Loan programs from private colleges and universities

- For information, check the college's catalogue, or contact the financial aid office.

Home equity loans or line of credit

- These methods of financing an education offered by many banks enable parents to access the equity in their home. When used for educational purposes, there may be significant tax advantages. Consult your tax advisor.

Interest-free monthly payment plans

- Interest-free, insured, monthly installment plans are available at many colleges for payment of tuition, fees, room and board and other expenses. Generally, 10- or 12-month payment options are available at no interest. Check with the college.

AmeriCorps

- AmeriCorps is a federal volunteer program; participants serve for 10 to 12 months. At the completion of service, full-time participants receive an education award up to $4,725 ($2,362 for part-time service). The voucher may be used to pay off qualified student loans or pay for future education expenses at qualified schools. For more information call 1-800-942-2677, or visit www.americorps.org.

New York's College Savings Program

- Start a college savings program with a minimum $25 deposit. You need not be a NYS resident, although NYS taxpayers can receive a NYS income tax deduction for contributions up to $5,000 annually (up to $10,000 for married couples filing jointly). Qualified withdrawals are exempt from state and federal income taxes. Savings may be used to meet college costs at any eligible college or university. of Tomorrow Scholarships

The $4,000 scholarship, paid in annual increments, may be applied to the cost of attendance at any New York State accredited college, university, community college or trade school. To qualify for the scholarship, students are recommended by their school superintendents or principals based on demonstrated academic and leadership skills and a record of community service.

“. . . the Lottery is proud to recognize students from across the state whose contributions to the community are combined with their excellence in the classroom. Our hope is that these recipients will continue to serve the community not only while pursuing their higher education but long after they graduate. We want to foster that spirit of community involvement and help inspire New York's students of today to become our Leaders of Tomorrow,” said New York Lottery Director Nancy A. Palumbo.

---

Over the past five years the New York Lottery has awarded a total of 5,776 young men and women these scholarships representing an investment of over $23 million.

Calendar

For students entering college in the 2005-06 academic year

2004

September and October

- Colleges encourage visits from students and their parents. It's your chance to "try on" a campus. Use the map on pages 14 - 15 to plan your trips. Also ask your school counselor about the college fairs in your area. It's a good opportunity to talk with college representatives.
- Collect admissions applications from colleges. Use the on-line form at www.nycolleges.org/register.html, or contact the admissions offices directly by phone or e-mail.
- Ask your teachers and others for the letters of recommendation you need for your admission applications. Make a list of all admission and financial aid application deadlines!
  - ▶ Sep. 7: Registration deadline for Oct. 9 SAT I & SAT II.
  - ▶ Sep. 17: Registration deadline for Oct. 23 ACT.
  - ▶ Oct. 1: Registration deadline for Nov. 6 SAT I & SAT II.
  - ▶ Oct. 9: SAT I & SAT II test date.
  - ▶ Oct. 23: ACT test date.
  - ▶ Oct. 29: Registration deadline for Dec. 4 SAT I & SAT II.

November and December

- Explore all financial aid sources, including scholarships from local businesses, organizations, employers, churches, etc. Ask for help at your public library and guidance office. Attend financial aid workshops and college fairs. See page 12 for helpful Web addresses.
- Continue completing your college applications. Pay careful attention to the deadlines!
- Obtain the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) from your school counselor. Check with all the colleges to which you are applying to determine which financial aid forms you must complete to qualify for all types of aid. Obtain all required forms (see page 3).

- ▶ Nov. 5: Registration deadline for Dec. 11 ACT.
- ▶ Nov. 6: SAT I & SAT II test date.
- ▶ Dec. 4: SAT I & SAT II test date.
- ▶ Dec. 11: ACT test date.
- ▶ Dec. 20: Registration deadline for Jan. 22 SAT I & SAT II.

2005

January

- Attend local college financial aid awareness activities.
- As soon as possible after January 1, complete and mail your FAFSA, or complete it on-line at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Estimate your income if you have not yet completed your tax returns. Keep a copy of all the forms you file. Complete and submit all other required financial aid forms. Watch your deadlines! You'll receive your Student Aid Report (SAR) within four weeks after filing your FAFSA by mail. Review your SAR carefully. Follow directions to correct errors.
  - ▶ Jan. 22: SAT I & SAT II test date.

February and March

- If you have not already done so, visit the colleges.
- Start to look for a summer job.
- In March, colleges will begin to notify students of college acceptance. See April for more information.
- NYS students who listed a NYS college on their FAFSA will receive by mail a pre-printed Express TAP Application (ETA) from NYSHESC. Don't lose it! See May for more details.
  - ▶ Feb. 7: Registration deadline for Mar. 12 SAT I only. (New SAT)
  - ▶ Mar. 4: Registration deadline for Apr. 9 ACT.
  - ▶ Mar. 12: SAT I only test date. (New SAT)
  - ▶ Mar. 25: Registration deadline for May 7 SAT I & SAT II. (New SAT)

April

- Colleges with traditional admissions and financial aid deadlines will notify you of college acceptance and financial aid packages. Evaluate the offers. Notify all the colleges of your decision or request an extension. Pay attention to those deadlines!
- If you still wish to expand your options, some colleges will accept admissions and financial aid applications at this time. See the Campus Directory on pages 16 - 18, or www.nycolleges.org/profiles for contact information.
  - ▶ Apr. 9: ACT test date.
  - ▶ Apr. 29: Registration deadline for Jun. 4 SAT I & SAT II. (New SAT)

May and June

- NYS residents: If you decide on a college in New York State, review, correct and return your Express TAP Application (ETA) to NYSHESC. Be sure your TAP Award Certificate contains the code for the college you will attend. See pages 7 - 8 for more information. Direct questions to 1-888-NYSHESC.
- Apply for a Federal Stafford or Direct loan after you have made your college choice. See pages 8 - 10 for additional information about student loans and other college financing options.
- Follow up on the progress of your loans and other forms of student aid.
  - ▶ May 2-6 & May 9-13: Advanced Placement Program® Exams.
  - ▶ May 6: Registration deadline for Jun. 11 ACT. (New SAT)
  - ▶ May 7: SAT I & SAT II test date. (New SAT)
  - ▶ Jun. 4: SAT I & SAT II test date. (New SAT)
